PRIVATE RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATION DISCLOSURE

As a private Christian school, GCA is a “religious organization.” While commerce laws prohibiting arbitrary discrimination on the basis of race, color, sex, national origin, age and disability apply generally to religious organizations, a religious organization is allowed to discriminate on the basis of its religious beliefs. This exception is rooted in the constitutional right to free exercise of religion. As a private school, GCA considers academic performance to be criteria relevant to decisions regarding student admission and retention. As a religious organization, GCA will neither commence nor continue admission, enrollment or employment if it is believed by GCA that such will cause confusion about, conflict with, or compromise of the school’s mission to provide a distinctly Christian education from a Christ-centered worldview. In that regard, GCA conforms to the orthodox teachings of the historical Christian Church as set forth in the sixty-six books of the Holy Bible, all of which we believe to be our infallible and authoritative rule of faith and practice. Any decision to discriminate on the basis of religious belief will be made by the Head of School, subject to review by the Board of Trust. This policy applies to and is incorporated into all GCA affairs, including all GCA contracts, programs, activities, facilities, publications, and events.

CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY STATEMENT

Grace Christian Academy (GCA) is a Christian community (a “household of faith,” Galatians 6:10). Through GCA we exercise, express and sustain our Christian beliefs and Christian mission. Our commitment to one another is based on a relationship between fellow-followers of the Lord Jesus Christ (Christian fellowship), not a mere contractual relationship. Thus, the GCA Christian community, by definition, includes Jesus. No Jesus; no GCA. Our shared purpose is to work together in Christian fellowship to raise our children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord (Eph. 6:4).

Our Christian community’s foundational beliefs about the Lord Jesus Christ and His revelation of divine truth include those set forth in the GCA Doctrinal Statement, the GCA Mission Statement, the GCA Core Values Statement, the GCA Christian Community Statement, the GCA Educational Philosophy Statement, and the other official GCA policies or statements adopted by or approved by the GCA Board of Trust. (“How can two walk together unless they be agreed?” Amos 3:3.)

As a Christian community and private Christian school, GCA is a “religious organization.”

As a private school, GCA considers academic performance in its admission and retention decisions; however, GCA does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origin in admission policies, administration of educational policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic or other school administered programs.

The laws of interstate commerce prohibiting arbitrary discrimination on the basis of race, color, sex, national origin, age and disability apply generally to religious organizations, with the notable exception (rooted in the constitutional right to free exercise of religion) that religious organizations are permitted to make choices on the basis of religious beliefs.

As a religious organization, the GCA Christian community views trustee, employee, student, parent and family lifestyle choices and conduct to be a reflection of religious beliefs and Christian commitment. GCA will exercise its prerogative as a religious organization to neither commence nor continue an appointment, employment, admission, enrollment, or other category of GCA Christian community relationship if it is believed by GCA that so doing will cause confusion about, conflict with, or compromise of the GCA Christian community mission to provide a distinctly Christian education from a Christ-centered worldview.

Any such religious organization decision will be based upon the historical, orthodox doctrines of the church of the Lord Jesus Christ, as set forth in the sixty-six books of the Holy Bible, which the GCA Christian community believes to be the Word of God and the infallible and authoritative rule of faith and practice. Any such decision will be made by the Head of School, subject to review by the Board of Trust. This policy will be applied to all GCA affairs, including but not limited to all GCA contracts, programs, activities, facilities, publications, and events.

DOCTRINAL STATEMENT

Please carefully read our Doctrinal Statement and indicate below your degree of support.

- A. We believe that the Bible, consisting of 66 books of the Old and New Testaments, verbally inspired, free from error in doctrine, fact and ethic, and inerrant in the original writings, is the Word of God and the only infallible and authoritative rule of faith and practice (2 Timothy 3:16-17, Hebrews 4:12; 2 Peter 1:21)
- B. We believe in the Holy Trinity, one God eternally existent in the three persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – the same in substance, equal in power and glory. (Gen 1:1, 26,27, 3:22; Psalm 90:2; Matthew 28:19)
- C. We believe in the Deity of our Lord Jesus Christ, His virgin birth, His sinless life, His miracles, His vicarious and atoning death, His bodily resurrection, His ascension to the right hand of God the Father, and His personal physical return in power and glory. (John1:1-5, Col 1:15-17; Matt. 1:22,23)
- D. We believe that God created man in His own image but that through sin, man brought upon himself and his posterity not only physical death, but also spiritual death which is separation from God; that all human beings by physical birth possess a sinful nature. (Gen. 1:27,28;
- E. We believe that the salvation of lost and sinful man is a free gift of God’s grace apart from works, based solely upon Christ’s vicarious and atoning death, effected by the regenerating work of the Holy Spirit, and received by trusting in Christ’s finished work on the cross, and that this salvation is eternally secured to all believers.(John1:1-5; Col. 1:15-17; Rom 3:22-26; Eph 2:8-9)
- F. We believe in the present ministry of the Holy Spirit, by Whose indwelling upon salvation the Christian is enabled to live a godly life; that it is incumbent upon every believer to walk worthy of his calling – to walk after the Spirit and not after the flesh. The Holy Spirit connects people to Christ, equips them in their relationship with God, and helps them share Christ with people who do not know Him. We believe in the personal baptism with the Holy Spirit as received by believers “at the beginning.” We believe in the present day manifestation of all the gifts of the Holy Spirit in the Church. (Acts1:8; 2:4, 4:31, 8:17, 10:44-46; Rom 8:9-15; 2 Cor. 1:21-22)
- G. We believe that Jesus Christ will return to the earth one day to take everyone who believe in Him and entered a relationship with God as savior to Heaven to live for eternity. People who have not chosen to accept Christ will be separated from God for eternity and will not be able to experience Heaven but experience eternal damnation.(John 5:28; I Corinthians 15:20-23; Rom. 3:20-23)
- H. We believe in the spiritual unity of believers in the Lord Jesus Christ. (John 17:11; Romans 12:1-13; Eph 4:1-6)
- I. We believe in the sanctity of human life from the moment of conception to the time of death. All human life is precious in the sight of God. (Lk 1:15; Gal. 1:15; Psalm 22:10)
- J. We believe that marriage and family are institutions ordained by the Lord God Himself from the very beginning of human history and these are sacred institutions. Marriage is between one man and one woman. Any other definition of marriage is contrary to the clear teachings of the Holy Bible and hence against the expressed will of God. (Gen 1:27-28, 2:20; Cor. 7:2)

I fully support the Christian Community Statement and the Doctrinal Statement as written without reservations.
